AI Technologies and Use Cases

Generative artificial intelligence at Cuatrecasas

We combine legal excellence with the most advanced generative artificial intelligence (“AI”) solutions, maintaining the strictest ethical standards and security.

CELIA (Cuatrecasas Legal Expert in AI) is our global strategy that brings together all our generative AI initiatives. This comprehensive program guarantees (i) specialized training of our staff members, (ii) the efficient adoption of the most appropriate innovative technologies, (iii) identification of use cases with added value, and (iv) the development of internal policies that ensure maximum security and confidentiality.

Use cases

AI optimizes our processes and strengthens our productivity in various tasks, including (i) legal document analysis (summing up key points, suggesting improvements or detecting inconsistencies); (ii) idea and strategy generation (proposing arguments for defense or negotiation); (iii) efficient legal drafting (supporting the preparation of legal documents); and (iv) improving the final service and product offered (enabling a more precise advisory service, reducing response times, proactively identifying risks and opportunities, and customizing solutions).

Governance

Our staff members only use generative AI applications in Cuatrecasas’s closed and secure environment. All results are always reviewed, validated and critically analyzed by expert lawyers, guaranteeing maximum quality and human control in each process*.

*Cuatrecasas does not use client information or documents to train AI models.
