

Department for Science, Innovation
& Technology

UKTIN

UK Research
and Innovation

Join us at the UK Telecoms R&D Reception at Mobile World Congress

The Department for Science, Innovation and Technology (DSIT), Innovate UK and the UK Telecoms Innovation Network (UKTIN) would like to invite you to a reception being hosted by the Department for Business and Trade.

The reception will take place at the UK pavilion in hall 7, B41 on Tuesday 27 February at 2pm.

2pm

Welcome reception with refreshments

Arrive at the UK Pavilion hall 7, B41

2.10pm

UK Governments telecoms R&D investments

Sarah Connolly, Director of Digital Infrastructure, Department for Science, Innovation and Technology

2.15pm

Future Telecoms interventions and investments

Tom Kirkham, Innovation Lead, Innovate UK

2.20pm

Overview of the UK telecoms R&D ecosystem

Nick Johnson, Head of UKTIN

2.25 - 3pm

Networking

Meet with the DSIT, Innovate UK and UKTIN teams as well as representatives from some of the DSIT funded projects.

Please be aware this event is taking place on the UK pavilion and is not ticketed so please arrive promptly to secure a space.

Spaces Still Available

Runway to Mobile World Congress Webinar Series

Join us for an exciting series of webinars leading up to Mobile World Congress 2024, curated by the UK Government.

Engage with us in insightful conversation about investment into the UK, telecoms innovation, and the critical role of startups in shaping the industry landscape - all vital components contributing to the dynamic and thriving UK telecoms sector.

*Supporting and Developing Innovation in Telecoms: The UK's Approach to R&D
Hosted by DSIT*

*Navigating the UK Telecoms Ecosystem
Hosted by UKTIN*

14 February, 11.00-11.45 (GMT)/12.00-12.45 (CET)

20 February, 12.30-13.15 (GMT)/13.30-14.15 (CET)

REGISTER HERE

