PURPLE POWER

THE ART OF EXPERIENCE

On behalf of our employees worldwide, thank you for your interest in INOI.

We create more than smartphones—we fuse mobile technology with financial solutions, giving people seamless access to communication, digital services, and financial freedom.

Our focus is on innovation, accessibility, and integration.

Every INOI device combines cutting-edge technology with an intelligent financial platform, delivering both performance and real value.

At INOI, we believe that progress never stops. We continue to challenge ourselves, striving for excellence in everything we do—so that you can do more, connect more, and achieve more.

Sincerely,

Vice Chairman
Debbie Zheng

INOI is a global brand with a strong presence across multiple markets. Our devices and digital solutions are designed to meet the needs of users worldwide, ensuring reliability, innovation, and seamless connectivity. With offices, partners, and production facilities in key regions, we are committed to delivering high-quality technology that enhances everyday life.

OUR MISSION

We create innovative devices and a financial platform that empowers people with seamless access to technology and financial services.

NICE, FRANCE MARKETING & DESIGN CENTER

We are proud to have our Marketing & Design Center in France. This hub embodies our commitment to cutting-edge design and highlighted by our unique "Purple Power" philosophy and the iconic Purple Button.

SHENZHEN, CHINA R&D AND MANUFACTURING

Shenzhen, is often referred to as the Silicon Valley of the mobile industry. This is why we have established one of our largest R&D offices and factories there.

Our fully dedicated team, including senior engineers, works to ensure our quality control.

DUBAI, UAE SOFTWARE HOUSE

We are creating a SuperApp in Dubai—an innovative application that makes digital and financial services as convenient as possible. It provides users with fast, secure, and intuitive access to everything they need, simplifies daily tasks, and delivers a seamless user experience where technology works for you.

Behind this is our unique team of professionals, combining cutting-edge technology, deep expertise, and a passion for creating solutions that redefine the digital landscape.
